

Answer Key

---

Active Reading SkillBuilder, page 75

Responses will vary. Possible responses are provided.

Question: Will Walt make it to his destination without freezing? Will his pursuers catch up with him?

Visualize: Imagine Walt sitting in a sled pulled by sled dogs. Imagine him jumping off and running alongside of it for a while to stay warm, then jumping back on the sled. Imagine him looking back to see the claim-jumpers behind him, also on a sled pulled by dogs.

Connect: Walt's experience sounds something like going skiing or snowshoeing in really cold weather.

Predict: Walt seems to know a lot about how to survive in the Arctic, but so do his pursuers. I predict that the pursuers will catch up to him, but that Walt will win out in the end.

Clarify: Walt is cold, so he runs alongside the sled to keep warm. Two men are chasing him in another sled.

Evaluate: The story is very suspenseful and full of adventure. At this point, I just want to keep reading to see what will happen next.