

Which part of the story was most frightening?

"The Monkey's Paw"

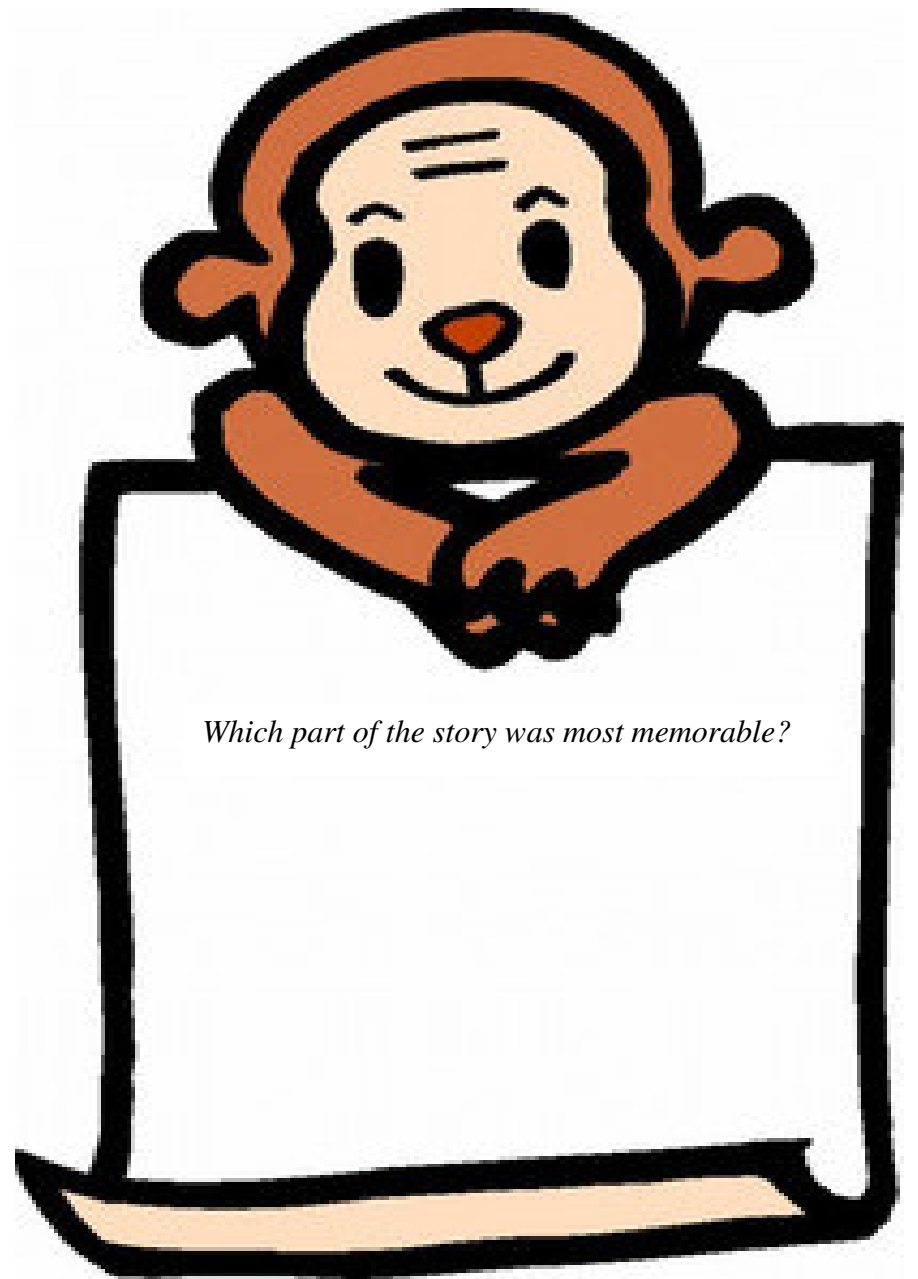

W.W. Jacobs

Group Reflection

Note: Use all of the materials in this packet to make your "poster" Think about these questions before you write your answer (in complete sentences). Write them very neatly. Each person in your group will present to the class. As a group, decide what part you will each present

Which part of the story was most believable?

Which part of the story was most memorable?