

Mother to Son / Speech to the Young . . . (page 192) Active Reading SkillBuilder*Making Inferences

Inferences are logical conclusions that readers form when they combine the evidence in the text with their own knowledge. Record the experiences and advice of each speaker in the charts below to help you make inferences about these characters and their lives.

“Mother to Son”

Clue	Inference
The title is “Mother to Son.”	The speaker is a woman.

“Speech to the Young . . .”

Clue	Inference